

CONVERT YOUR SKILLS & EXPERIENCE INTO A RECOGNISED QUALIFICATION

With Bricklayer Training Australia, you can use your existing skills, work experience and knowledge to earn a Nationally Recognised Qualification.

Have your skills reviewed and your eligibility determined.

What is Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) & Skills Recognition?

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Skills Recognition is an assessment process allowing individuals to achieve all, or part, of a Nationally Recognised Qualification by demonstrating their knowledge, skills and experience around a particular topic.

Generally, to complete a qualification via RPL you can provide assessment materials from home.
